Dear Miss Hall:

It is with deep and sincere appreciation that we, the class of 1962, dedicate our annual, THE SPOTLIGHT, to you.

You have had enduring patience with us, you have given us guidance and courage to try for higher levels. You have encouraged us to do our best in everything we do, and we will remember this always.

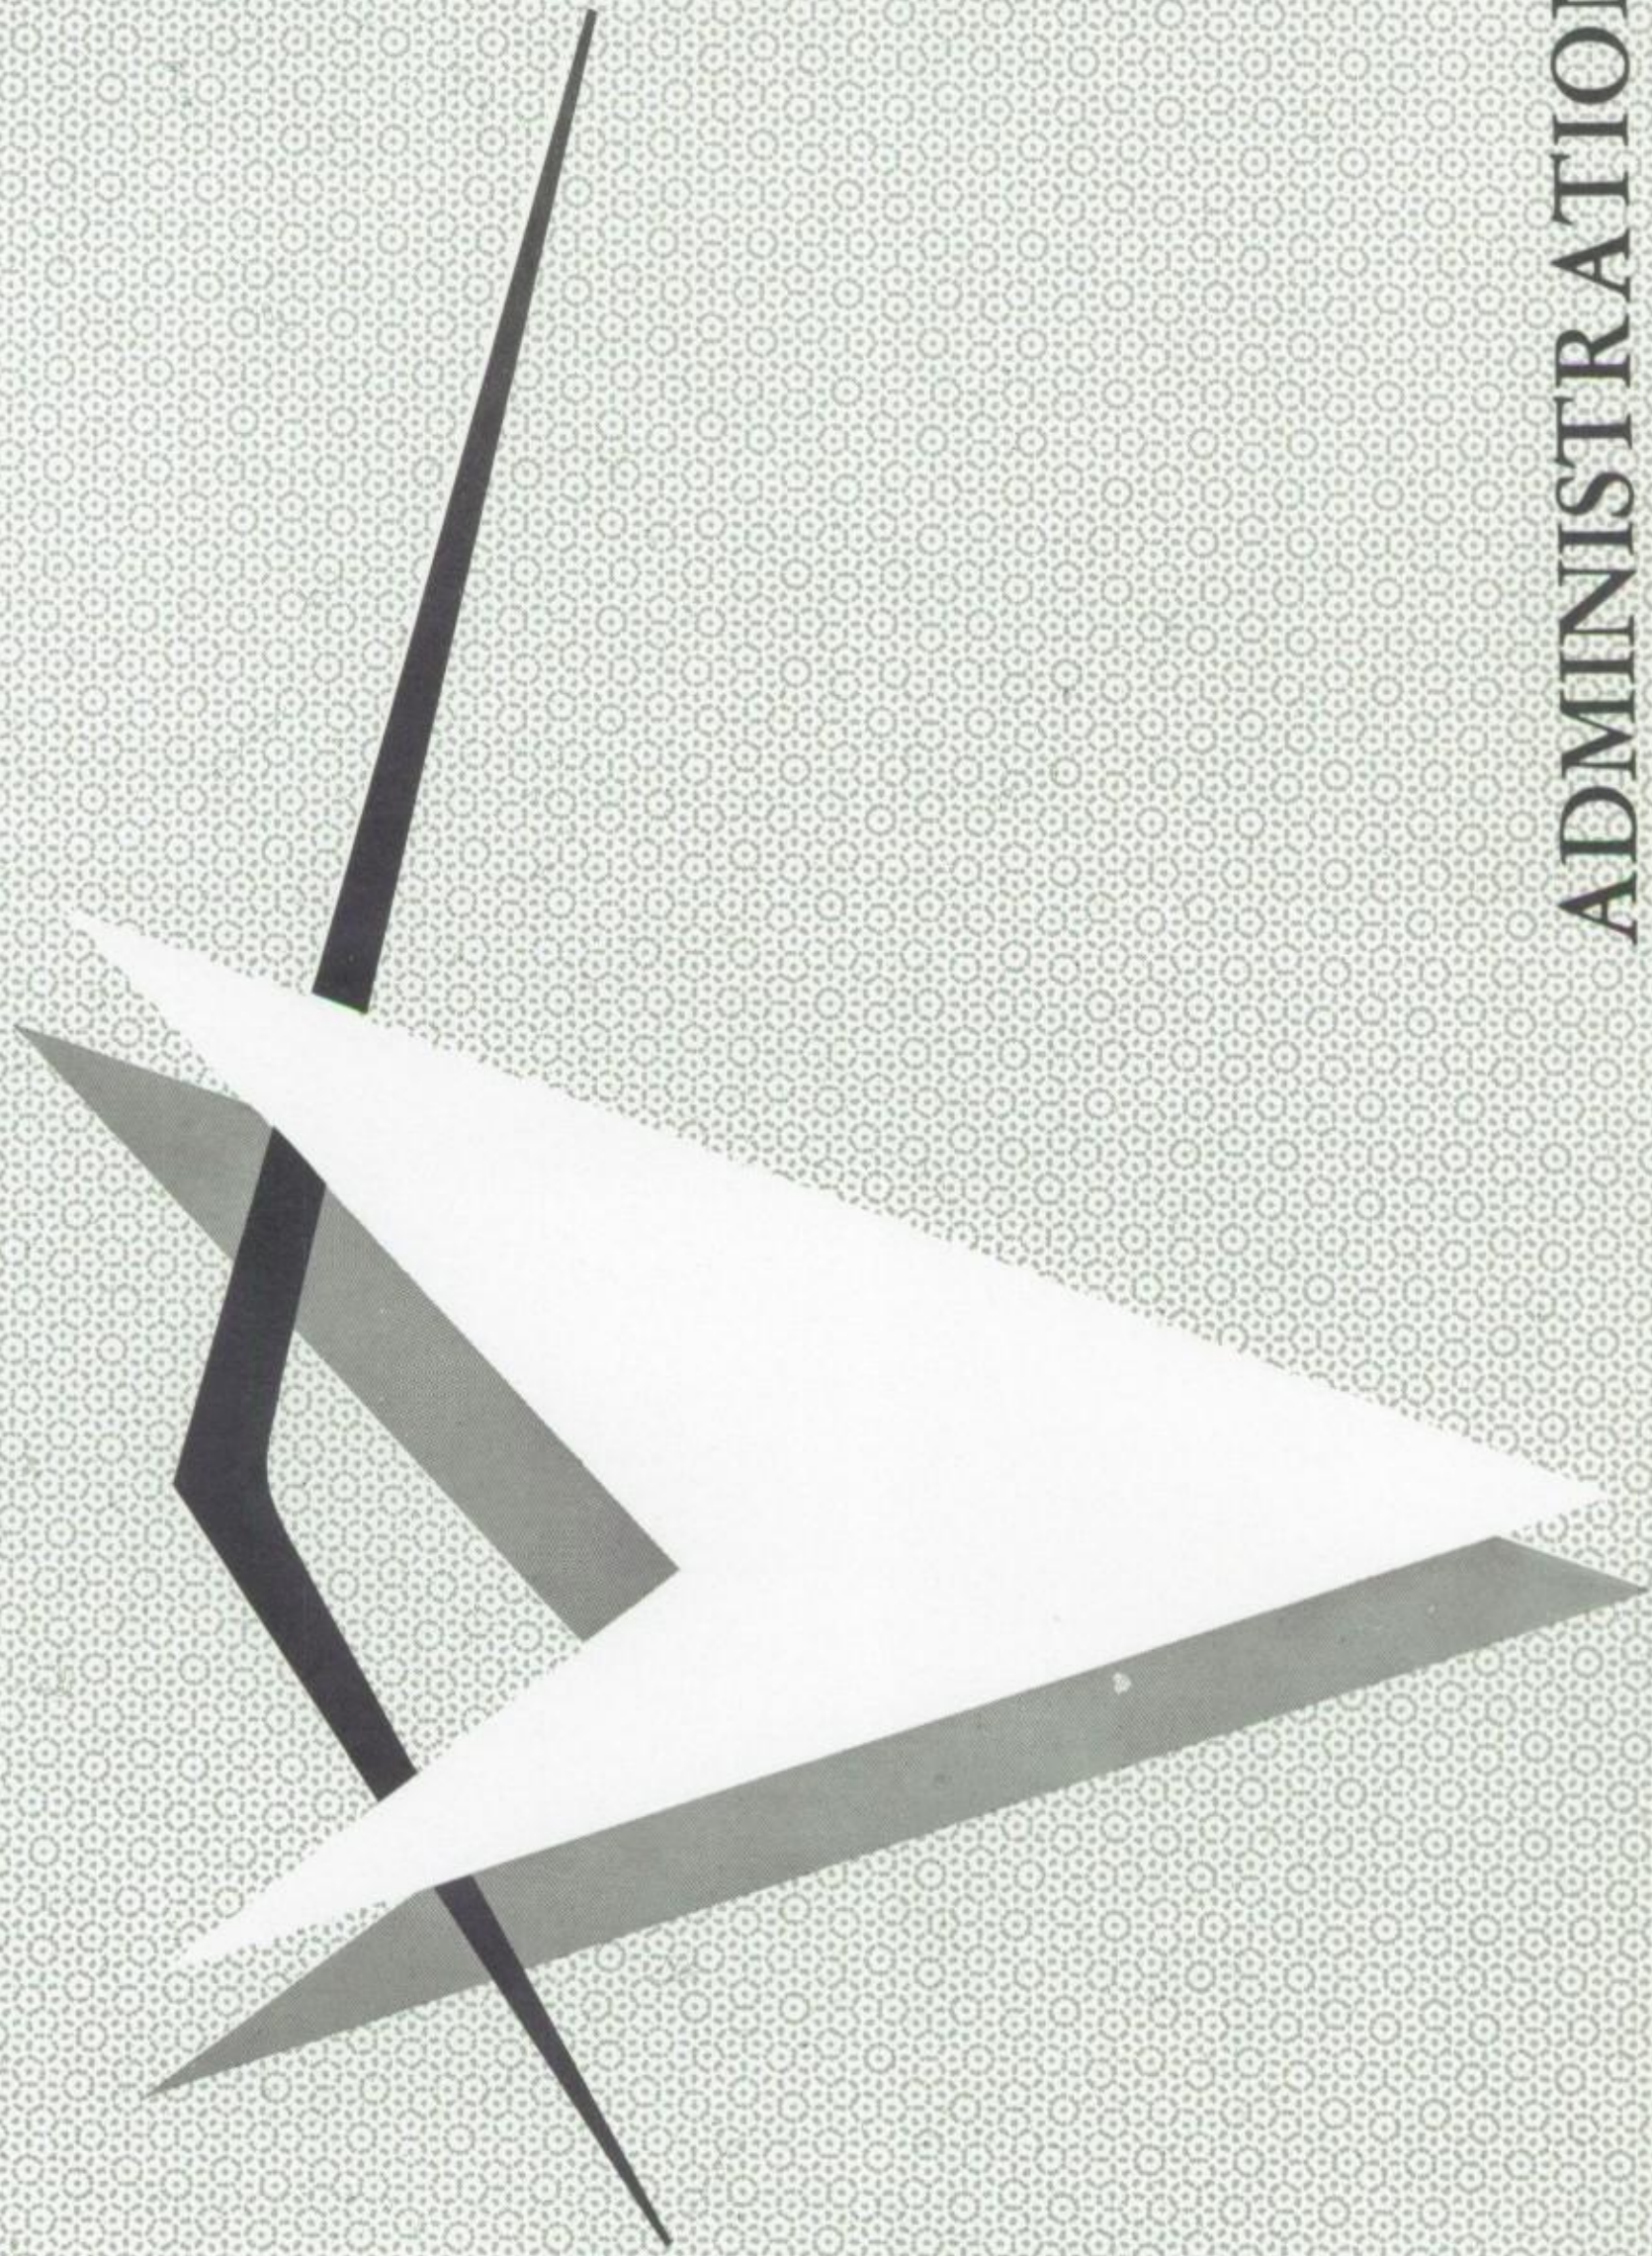

So, perhaps, by dedicating our yearbook to you, we can repay you in some small way for the devotion and personal interest you have given us all.

Forever grateful,

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

Twenty-five! Yes, twenty-five daring youngsters started their first day of school in September 1950. Mrs. Powlen, our teacher in the first and second grades of school, was naturally overjoyed to have such a group of "eager" beginners. Their names were Linda Adams, Jane Blockover, Kathleen Deck, Barbara Haselby, Dorothy Rance, Karen Thompson, Judy Owens, Jim Barr, Robert Barrett, Arthur Burrough, Danny Burkhart, Tom Deck, George Mohler, Gene Powlen, Teddy Rance, Kenneth Reed, Gary Reingardt, Jerry Robinson, Mick Scheetz, Jerry Swank, Loren Swedburg, Larry Tabler, Rex Waymire, Steve Burrough, and Charles Fry.

In the third grade we were guided by Mrs. Winn. That year twelve pupils left us. Larry Curry was our only newcomer. Mrs. Winn welcomed everyone back for the fourth grade. At this time Larry Hayden, Stanley Gilman, David Kelley, and Tim Marshall joined our little medley.

Mr. Jones, our fifth and sixth grade teacher, welcomed us with open arms. Our class was reduced by the absence of two students.

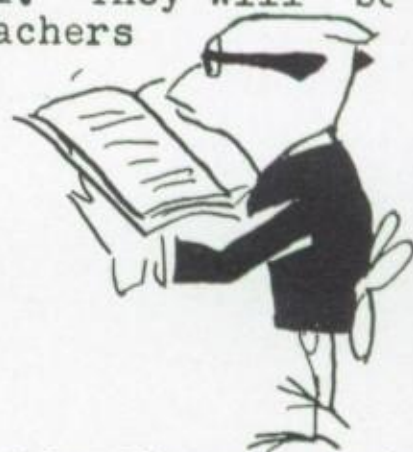

Junior high went fast. Mr. Connelly was our principal in the seventh grade; and Mr. Moss, in the eighth. The number of the class remained about the same. By the time we were out of junior high, we figured we pretty well knew the system for the following four years.

At last it was our first year of high school, with Mr. Moss as our principal. Janet Carmicheal joined us that year. When we were sophomores, our only newcomer was Francis Bonhomme. Alberta Wipperman left us after being with us almost eight years. Mr. Bauerle was our sponsor in our freshman year, and Mr. Clayburn, in our sophomore year and half of our junior year. Mr. Howat took over the mob and remained our sponsor in our senior year. Our junior year was a busy one. We sold candy and magazines and produced our junior play.

Finally, after a tough struggle, we became seniors! This year was our last and most wonderful year. Mr. Shipman was now our principal and helped lead us toward the right path. We sold Christmas cards, presented our senior play, and had the fun and experience of working on the Spotlight. Our graduating class consisted of Jim Barr, Bob Barrett, Francis Bonhomme, Dandy Burrough, Janet Carmicheal, Larry Curry, Kathleen Deck, Stanley Gilman, Barbara Haselby, Larry Hayden, David Kelley, Tim Marshall, Gene Powlen, Jerry Robinson, Mick Scheetz, Jerry Swank, Karen Thompson, and Rex Waymire.

These four years of high school were happy years for all. They will be remembered by each of us, and we will always remember the teachers who guided us.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

I, Jim Barr, bequeath my ability to grow a goatee to John Thomas, so he may become a real southern colonel; and my ability to get along with Miss Hall to George, so he might be able to graduate, if he is lucky.

I, Bob Barrett, bequeath my abilities to act as if I have abilities, to Steve Bonhomme, so he can have many abilities.

I, Francis Bonhomme, will my ability to stay out of the office unless for business purposes to anyone who needs it. I will my Pep Club presidency to Jane Barrett.

I, Dan Burrough, do bequeath my height to short sophomores and my ability to be quiet in study hall to the noisy underclassmen of L.H.S.

I, Janet Carmicheal, do bequeath my ability to receive good grades in English to my sister, Judy; and my ability to get along with teachers to whom-ever it may help.

I, Larry Curry, do bequeath my seat by the register to any underclass - man who wishes it, so that he may repel the coldness of the icy winter days; and my ability to participate in sports to Steve Winn, so that he may also show that little men are just as important as big men.

I, Kathy Deck, do bequeath my ability to drive safely to my brother, Tom, so he won't have any more accidents; and my seat on the school bus to Jane Barrett, so she can keep Dianne Clary company.

I, Stan Gilman, do bequeath my car to my brother, Bill, so he may tease the Logansport girls I missed. To my brother, Chuck, I will my ability to endure nagging teachers, which he will need in the future. To my sister, Nancy, I leave my pencil stubs.

I, Barbara Haselby, do bequeath my tin necklace to John Thomas and Joe Barr, so they can fight over it; and my nicknames, of "loopie," "pudgy," etc., to Ellen Thomas.

I, Larry Hayden, do bequeath my ability to stay out of the office to George Mohler, who just may need it in his remaining year; and my ability to be quiet in study hall to the ninth grade, so that the teacher may not take up all their time with a lecture.

I, David Kelley, do bequeath my ability to play second base to Larry Winn, and my batting ability to Mike Robinson; to George Mohler, my ability to stay out of trouble and to get to school on time.

I, Tim Marshall, do bequeath my unused height to Larry Winn and my excuse slips to my sister for the coming year.

I, Gene Powlen, do bequeath my wonderful, beautiful chemistry and physics books to David Herd, because I am sure that he has always wanted them, my ability to get a date a day ahead of time to John Thomas; and my ability to judge chickens to "cousin Sam."

I, Jerry Robinson, do bequeath my ability to grow whiskers to Fred Minnick, so he may use the razor he got for Christmas; and my ability to be quiet in class and the assembly to Joe Barr, who just might need it.

I, Mick Scheetz, do bequeath my admiration for the girls and basketball at all times, to all underclassmen at L.H.S.

I, Jerry Swank, do bequeath my pencils and papers to my sister; my study hall seat to Ralph, so he may keep warm; and all my science and math books to Phil McDonald.

I, Karen Thompson, do bequeath my ability to enjoy school and teachers to my brothers, R. G. and Steve; and my glasses to anyone who can't read the fine print on tests or get the meaning of instructions.

I, Rex Waymire, do bequeath to Bob Cree my ability to stay slim, so he will grow up and not out; and my ability to have fun the last two years of school to Mike Robinson, who seems to be living it up now.

Senior Class Prophecy

AS SEEN IN THE
CRYSTAL BALL

One day in 1982 a practice alert was sounded. As I started for my bomb shelter, I snatched up a newspaper to help pass the time away. My attention was immediately caught by some familiar names in the headlines. "JERRY SWANK and BOB BARRETT Have Landed Another Manned Space Craft on the Planet Pluto"! I read the article and was much surprised to find several Lucerne students were actively engaged in space work. One of the men who had made this flight possible was FRANCIS BONHOMME, head of the "clearing meteors out of the path of rocket highways" department. The men were to report their research data to JERRY ROBINSON, head of the planet research committee, who is still trying to find out if the moon is made of green cheese.

In the political news I was surprised to learn that DAVID KELLEY and TIM MARSHALL were running on the same ticket for the nomination of President and Vice-president of Venus.

I am still interested in farm news, so I turned next to that section of the paper. The new pushbutton milking parlor with 15,000 cows, opened up by Scheetz and Deck, Inc., was open for inspection. The corporation heads' pictures were shown. Although twenty years had made some changes, I could easily recognize MICK SCHEETZ and KATHY DECK. Then I saw another familiar name, "GENE POWLEN Named Head of the United States Goose Farms in Wisconsin." Evidently Gene has put his knowledge of poultry to good use!

One of my favorite sections of the paper is the sports page. The first name that caught my eye was that of LARRY CURRY. Larry's name has been seen frequently on sports pages ever since he entered junior high school. As coach of the University of Mars he had just won his fifth Universe Championship in Rocket Polo!

Lucerne seniors of 1962 seem to have been active in educational circles in other fields besides sports. There was an article in the paper about lost continents, published by co-authors JIM BARR and JANET CARMICHEAL.

About this time REX WAYMIRE dropped in. He had been in the neighborhood trying to get additional business when the alert sounded, so he decided to join me rather than go to the public bomb shelter. He has a dance studio and specializes in teaching dances of the early sixties, such as the Twist, the Pony, and the Continental Walk. He said he needed the services of a chiropractor frequently, and there was none better than STANLEY GILMAN. Stan, incidentally, is selling swimming pools as a side line. He took over when Esther Williams retired.

Rex called my attention to an advertisement of a new contact lens corporation in the land of Alakazam. The president and major stock holder was KAREN THOMPSON.

Judge BARBARA HASELBY's name appeared in several of the court notes. It seemed to me that she had handed down several rather severe decisions. When I remarked about this, Rex laughed and said that Barbara wasn't in a very good mood that week. Her spouse had run a red light and smashed up their new helicopter.

Rex suggested that we turn on television, because there was a new program, "The Untouchables of Surfside 6," on the air that was supposed to be quite good. Cast as the two hard-boiled detectives for hire were none other than DAN BURROUGH and LARRY HAYDEN.

As the "all clear" sounded, we began to collect our belongings to come up to the surface. Suddenly I realized we had found out the present whereabouts of all the seniors of 1962! Surely, they have fulfilled their ambitions in a most amazing way!
